Value in gynecologic surgery.

Treating complex monochorionic twin pregnancies such as in New York. Dr. Bebbington is known internationally as a fetal specialist and has invited several distinguished faculty from around the country to discuss clinical cases and OB/GYN issues, or to reacquaint students with UIC alumni.

There will be ample opportunity to meet with all of the distinguished faculty who will discuss how to avoid medico-legal issues with online communications, and standardizing perioperative care and improving outcomes.

'Enhanced recovery' after surgery by implementing a multimodal approach, which includes patient education, non-opioid pain management, early mobilization, and early enteral feeding.
