SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL TRAINING AND ACTIVITIES

Dr. Krishnan is Professor, Associate Vice Chancellor for Population Health Sciences, and Executive Director of the Institute for Healthcare Delivery Design in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs at the University of Illinois Chicago (UIC). Dr. Krishnan received an MD degree with Honors from Baylor College of Medicine and completed a Residency in Internal Medicine and Fellowship in Pulmonary/Critical Care Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. He received a PhD in Clinical Investigation from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health (Advisors: Jonathan M. Samet, MD, MSc, and Cynthia S. Rand, PhD) and completed the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School.

Dr. Krishnan is a leader in the development, interpretation, and use of real-world evidence to inform population health strategies, with a focus on health equity. He is also an expert in the methods and implementation of pragmatic clinical trials, practice guidelines, and human-centered design for chronic lung disease. He is a founding investigator and Chair of the Steering Committee for the COPD Outcomes-based Network for Clinical Effectiveness and Research Translation (CONCERT), which was funded by the U.S. Agency for Healthcare Research & Quality to develop the first, national, stakeholder-supported research agenda for COPD and by the U.S. National Institutes of Health (NIH)/ National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute (NHLBI) to develop a national research infrastructure to conduct comparative effectiveness research in COPD, including individuals commonly under-represented in biomedical research. He is an investigator in research consortia conducting studies in asthma, COPD, sickle cell disease, insomnia, and COVID-19 (including post-acute sequelae of SARS-CoV-2 or “Long COVID”).

He is a member of numerous national and international advisory groups or committees. Examples include the FDA Pulmonary-Allergy Drugs Advisory Committee (past chair); NIH RECOVER Ancillary Oversight Committee (vice-chair); NIH/NHLBI Observational Study Monitoring Board (chair) for the U.S. ARDS, Pneumonia, and Sepsis (APS) Phenotyping Consortium; National Academy of Medicine ad hoc committee on the definition of Long COVID; NIH/NCATS Special Emphasis Panel for CTSAs; Global Initiative for Asthma (GINA) Board of Directors; American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Pulmonary Disease Approval Committee; and, the American Thoracic Society project on home-based monitoring in chronic lung disease (co-chair). ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIVITIES

As Chicago’s only public research university, the University of Illinois Chicago (UIC) prides itself on sparking new discoveries and innovations that can be practically applied for the benefit of the public. UIC is one of the most diverse research-intensive universities in the United States and is federally designated Minority Serving Institution, Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander-Serving Institution (AANAPISI), and Hispanic-Serving Institution. Part of UIC, the University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System (UI Health) is the academic health enterprise with a care delivery system (a 460-bed tertiary care hospital and more than 40 outpatient clinics, including 13 federally qualified Mile Square Health Center locations in Chicago) and seven health sciences colleges (Applied Health Sciences, Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, the School of Public Health, and the Jane Addams College of Social Work). The academic and research activities in the health sciences colleges include campuses in urban and rural areas of Illinois (Chicago, Peoria, Quad Cities, Rockford, Springfield, and Urbana). The mission of UI Health is to leverage its unique combination of clinical care, health sciences education, and biomedical research to provide high quality, cost-effective healthcare for the people of the State of Illinois and to deliver “personalized health” in pursuit of the elimination of racial and ethnic health disparities.

The Office of the Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs (led by Robert Barish, MD, MBA) provides oversight for UI Health and is comprised of seven functional units: Business Development, Communications, Health Affairs Advocacy and Government Relations, Health Informatics, Interprofessional Practice and Education, Population Health Sciences, and Quality and Patient Safety. Founded in 2011 by Dr. Krishnan, the Office of Population Health Sciences supports the mission of UI Health by providing strategic, technical, and operational support for developing, testing, and implementing population-level programs designed to eliminate racial and ethnic health disparities. Listed below are initiatives led by Dr. Krishnan in his role as Associate Vice Chancellor for Population Health Sciences.

▪ Chair, multiple search committees for UI Hospital & Clinics (Summer / Fall 2012)

In collaboration with a national executive search firm, led successful searches for the Associate Vice President for Community Based Practice (Robert Winn, MD), Associate Vice President for Hospital Operations (Brian Becker, MD, MMM), Associate Vice President for Professional Practice (Jaewon Ryu, MD, JD), and Associate Vice President for Quality and Patient Safety (Jodi Joyce, RN, MBA) for the care delivery system.

▪ Integration of the Englewood Health Center into the Mile Square Federally Qualified Health Center network (July 2012)

Led a successful application to the City of Chicago Community Health Centers RFP #11-01 FQHC resulting in the University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System-Mile Square Health Center (UI Health-MSHC) being named, in spring 2012, as the new care provider for the Englewood Neighborhood Health Center. We were awarded a two-year, $525,000/year, contract with the City of Chicago to provide care for the uninsured. The UI Health-MSHC at Englewood extends the reach of our health system to populations in need for high quality healthcare.

▪ Implementation of the Warfarin Genetics Service (August 2012)

UI Health is the first hospital in the nation to implement a warfarin pharmacogenetics service to provide genotype-guided warfarin dosing and anticoagulation assistance for all patients newly starting warfarin while hospitalized at UI Health (Nutescu et al. Pharmacotherapy 2013). This interdisciplinary consult service operates seven days a week and involves faculty from the Colleges of Pharmacy, Medicine, and Molecular Pathology. The new service has reduced time to therapeutic range and a decreased number of patients at risk for thrombotic and hemorrhagic complications.

▪ UI Health Innovative Health Care Strategy Award (April 2013)

Implemented a program to solicit, review, prioritize, and fund faculty-led programs that test new healthcare models within our health system. The explicit objective of the Innovative Health Care Strategy Awards is to: 1) improve the health of patients served by UI Health; 2) serve as the basis for conducting inter-professional education and training activities; and 3) develop expertise and capacity for our health system to implement value-based care. There were four Proposal Development Awards (in total $2M), two of which successfully competed for more than $21M in federally sponsored research awards:

- Patient-centered medical home for patients with kidney disease (PI: Denise Hynes, PhD, MPH, RN; proposal was subsequently awarded a $2 million PCORI contract – “Bringing Care to Patients: A Patient-Centered Medical Home for Kidney Disease”);
- Care coordination model for high-risk patients with chronic conditions (PI: Cheryl Schraeder, RN, PhD);

- Preventative care and care coordination for high-risk children (PI: Benjamin Van Voorhees, MD, MPH; proposal was subsequently awarded a $19.6 million CMS Health Care Innovation Award – “University of Illinois CHECK (Coordination of Healthcare for Complex Kids)”);
- Emergency Patient Interdisciplinary Care Coordination for Frequent ER Visitors (EPIC; PI: Terry Vanden Hoek, MD). In April 2013, UI Health initiated a demonstration project based on Dr. Vanden Hoek’s EPIC project, a $1.5 million 3-year program. Developed by an inter-professional team of clinicians and researchers from the Colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Social Work, EPIC will use an interdisciplinary care coordination model to address both the medical and psychosocial complications faced by patients who are frequent visitors to the emergency department.

▪ PATient Navigator to rEduce Readmissions (PARtNER; October 2013 to September 2016)

The Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI) awarded a $2M research contract to UI Health to study the effectiveness of Patient Navigators to reduce hospital readmissions. This research project focuses on developing and testing a program that combines proactive lay patient advocates from the community in which the patient lives (community health worker, CHW) together with a peer-led telephone information line to improve patient experience and reduce hospital readmissions. The development of PARtNER involves collaboration between individuals in multiple UI departments and from several institutions (including the Society of Hospital Medicine, COPD Foundation, Northwestern University, University of Illinois – Urbana-Champaign, Veterans Administration, University of Illinois Sickle Cell Patient Council, Academy Health, National Jewish Health, Howard University, Social Work Policy Institute, Baystate Medical Center, Olmsted Medical Center, University of California at San Francisco, Respiratory Health Association of Metropolitan Chicago, Mended Hearts).

▪ PEer-Led O2 Infoline for patients and CAregivers (PELICAN; 2013 to 2017)

PCORI awarded a $2M research contract to UI Health to develop a program to improve the use of supplemental oxygen in patients with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). Six to eight centers in the U.S. will participate in a multicenter pragmatic trial to test a phone-based educational curriculum delivered by peer coaches. This project involves collaboration with National Jewish Health, the University of California-Los Angeles/Los Angeles BioMedical Research Institute, AlphaNet, the COPD Foundation, Pulmonary Hypertension Association, Coalition for Pulmonary Fibrosis, Respiratory Health Association, Apria Healthcare, and Invacare.

▪ Coordinated Healthcare Interventions for Childhood Asthma Gaps in Outcomes (CHICAGO Plan; 2014 to 2017)

A collaborative led by UI Health was awarded a $4 million, 3-year contract from PCORI to test both provider- and patient-level interventions to improve clinically meaningful outcomes in children presenting to the emergency department with uncontrolled asthma. The broad-based CHICAGO Trial collaborative includes health care institutions (Sinai Health System, Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children’s Hospital of Chicago, University of Chicago Medicine, Rush University Medical Center, John H. Stroger, Jr. Hospital of Cook County, NorthShore University Health System, Northwestern University), advocacy groups (Respiratory Health Association, Chicago Asthma Consortium), the City of Chicago Department of Public Health, patient-centered outcomes researchers (Illinois Institute of Technology Institute of Design, Illinois Emergency Department Asthma Surveillance Program), and the NIH/NCATS Clinical and Translational Science Award (CTSA) Chicago consortium.

- Chicago Area Patient Centered Clinical Outcomes Research Network (CAPriCORN; 2014 to 2017)

The University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System is part of a coalition of 20 health and hospital organizations that has been awarded an 18-month, $7 million PCORI award to establish a clinical data research network. The coalition will be part of a larger national network that will model how health care institutions in complex urban settings can overcome barriers of competition, care fragmentation and limited resources to develop, test and implement strategies to improve care for diverse populations and reduce health disparities.

- Design and conduct of the Community Health Needs Assessments (CHNAs) for the University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System; 2013, 2016, and 2019

Led the development of the Affordable Care Act (ACA)-required community health needs assessment report for UI Health. A community health needs assessment is a new requirement for all 501(c)(3) hospitals to maintain their tax-exempt status. The ACA is stimulating health systems to transition from a volume-based reimbursement model (higher volume, higher revenue) to a value-based model (higher quality care and better outcomes, higher revenue). Implicit in this transformation is the necessity for health systems to understand the needs of the patients they serve. UI Health has undertaken an ambitious and comprehensive evaluation of the health-related needs of the population we serve, which will inform the development and test the implementation of future health care models.

- Achieving Patient-Centered Care and Optimized Health In Care Transitions by Evaluating the Value of Experience (Project ACHIEVE; January 2015 to 2017)

The University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System is part of a collaboration of nationally recognized leaders in health care and research methods, partnering with patients and caregivers to evaluate the effectiveness of current efforts at improving care transitions and develop recommendations on best practices for patient-centered care transitions and guidance for spreading them across the U.S. This partnership has been funded by a 3-year award from PCORI.

- Director, Clinical Research Center, Center for Clinical and Translational Science (2012- 2014; NIH/NCATS UL1TR000050)

The Center for Clinical and Translational Science has three overarching mandates: education, research support, and facilitation of novel and collaborative approaches to clinical and translational research. The CCTS has five research cores, including the Clinical Research Core (CRC), directed by Dr. Krishnan. The CRC provides research infrastructure (trained personnel, equipment, and space) to facilitate clinical and translational research studies. Key accomplishments include: 1) expansion of ambulatory research space for study visits (10 to 23 clinic rooms); 2) successful implementation of research facilitation “without walls” for research nurse / research coordinator services, including for inpatient research; 3) two-fold increase in the total number of visits over the past 5 years and double the number of research protocols; and 4) expansion of research staff to include a bilingual workforce (English and Spanish) to meet the recruitment and retention needs of investigators.

▪ Member, Search Committee for the Chancellor and Vice President, University of Illinois Chicago (2014).

Represented the Office of the Vice President for Health Affairs / University of Illinois Hospital & Health Sciences System. The Chancellor and Vice President reports directly to the President of the University of Illinois System and serves as the chief executive officer for the Chicago-based university. The successful search concluded in the selection of Michael Amiridis, PhD, as the Chancellor and Vice President, University of Illinois Chicago.

▪ Chair, Health Affairs Transitions Steering Committee, University of Illinois Chicago (2015).

Appointed by the Vice President for Health Affairs and Chancellor of the University of Illinois Chicago to consider the current and future structure of the Vice President/Vice Chancellor of Health Affairs Office, develop an operational plan to handle transitional matters, and identify considerations that need further discussions.

▪ Chair, Selection committee, George H. Miller Memorial Fund Health Science Student Research Awards (2015)

Appointed by the Vice President for Health Affairs to develop funding opportunities that promote cross-college mentored research featuring inter-professional models of care. Three 1-year research efforts were awarded in 2015:

- Improving inpatient rounding practices (College of Applied Health Sciences and College of Medicine)
 - Student awardees: Joanna Jaros and Mary Buzzard
 - Faculty mentors: Karl Kochendorfer, Joanna Abraham
- Reducing out-of-hospital complications in adults with sickle cell disease (College of Medicine and College of Nursing)
 - Student awardees: Frank Zadravec, Keesha Roach
 - Faculty mentors: Robert Molokie, Crystal Patil
- Increasing access to long-acting reversible contraceptive methods in school-based health centers (College of Medicine and School of Public Health)
 - Student awardees: Molly Murphy, Katrina Stumbras
 - Faculty mentors: Sadia Haider, Kristin Rankin

▪ Improving Sickle cell care in Adolescents & Adults in Chicago (ISAAC; August 2016 to present)

The ISAAC program is a collaboration between UI Health and the Sinai Health System, Chicago, IL, and is funded by the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute; Dr. Victor Gordeuk is the contact Principal Investigator for this program. Sickle cell disease (SCD) is an inherited condition that causes pain and organ damage and shortens life. While best practices for managing SCD are available, there are several gaps in the implementation of evidence-based care by clinicians and by patients. The ISAAC project will improve the health and lives of patients with SCD by promoting longitudinal care, use of hydroxyurea, and achieving adequate control of pain during sickle cell crises.

▪ Chair, UI Health Information Repository Committee (2016)

Appointed by the Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs. The charge was to 1) identify individuals and units requiring access to health-related information for business and research functions; 2) describe the qualities required for a functional, multi-use health data warehouse; 3) identify current resources available to support development of a data warehouse; 4) assess current resources; and 5) develop a plan to ensure oversight of the use of individual health information so that it is coordinated, provides institution-wide secure HIPAA-compliant environments, recognizes varied needs of clinicians, health care administrators and researchers, and does not unnecessarily burden investigators.

▪ Member, Search committee, Dean of the School of Public Health, University of Illinois Chicago (2016 to 2017)

- Appointed by the Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs. Search successfully concluded in the appointment of Wayne Giles, MD, MS, as the Dean.

▪ Member, Search committee, Vice Chancellor for Research, University of Illinois Chicago (2017 to 2018)

- Appointed by the Chancellor of the University of Illinois Chicago. Search successfully concluded in the appointment of Joanna Groden, PhD, as the Vice Chancellor for Research.

▪ Discovery Partners Institute (DPI), University of Illinois

The DPI is led by the University of Illinois System and is the flagship program in the state of Illinois for workforce development in technology; supporting collaborations in applied R&D between industry, researchers, and students; and equitable economic development.

- Academic Executive Committee. Appointed by the Chancellor of the University of Illinois Chicago, November 2017 to 2021.

- Executive Committee, 2021 to 2022

▪ Executive Director, Institute for Healthcare Delivery Design, Office of the Vice Chancellor for Health Affairs, University of Illinois (2018 to present)

The Institute for Healthcare Delivery Design, approved in 2023 by the Illinois Board of Higher Education, is a resource to accelerate the integration and application of human-centered design methods to assist delivery systems during the transformation from fee-for-service to value-based models of care. The Institute employs a human-centered population sciences framework in healthcare delivery design to identify, understand, and address the complex and diverse needs of patients, caregivers, clinicians, hospital leaderships, public officials, and other decision makers in healthcare contexts.

The Institute provides advising services to the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services (HFS), health systems, and public health departments. Our work with HFS led to the launch of the $1B 7-year Healthcare Transformation Collaboratives (HTC). The HTC provides about $150M per year for demonstration projects between hospitals and community-based organizations to design, implement, and evaluate new models of population health for Medicaid beneficiaries in Illinois. In addition to the Advising services pillar, the Institute also collaborates in NIH and PCORI-funded national research consortia and supports training of health sciences students in human-centered design.

- COVID-19 Research Advisory Committee, Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research (OVCR; 2020 – 2021)

In response to the research-related precautions, the OVCR implemented an advisory committee to evaluate the impact of COVID-19 related research on healthcare operations. This committee is advisory to the institution's Incident Command and OVCR.

- COVID-19 Clinical Research Restart Workgroup, Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research (OVCR; 2020 – 2021)

In response to local and state planned phase-outs of stay-at-home orders due to COVID-19 pandemic, this workgroup serves in an advisory capacity for policies to re-start clinical research.

- Member, Search committee, Head, Department of Medicine, University of Illinois Chicago (2022 - 2023)

Appointed by the Executive Dean, College of Medicine, University of Illinois Chicago.

- Member, Office of Vice Chancellor for Research and UI Health Clinical Research Implementation Advisory Committee (2023 – present)

The Committee advises the CMO and CNO regarding implementation of clinical studies, including research trial implementation to ensure coordination of the health system and researchers' needs.

Conduct planning activities by establishing a RE-CONNECTS Operations Group (ROG); conducting a pilot study to assess feasibility and solicit participant input about conducting long-term follow-up study visits among participants previously enrolled in the NHLBI CONNECTS adaptive trials platform for acute COVID-19; and developing a penultimate RE-CONNECTS study protocol. The objectives of the RE-CONNECTS study are to evaluate whether host-directed anti-thrombo-vasculo-inflammatory interventions for acute COVID-19 influence long term outcomes after SARS-CoV-2 infection; conduct investigations on possible mechanisms by which interventions affect long term outcomes after SARS-CoV-2 infection; and create an engaged community of participants previously enrolled in acute COVID-19 studies that will inform and contribute to the success of future NHLBI programs.
