Senior Theses Day 2016
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS COLLEGE OF MEDICINE
DEPARTMENT OF ORTHOPAEDICS

College of Medicine West Tower - Auditorium 227
1853 West Polk Street, Chicago
Saturday, June 18, 2016 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

VISITING PROFESSOR

Paul Tornetta, III, M.D.
Professor and Vice Chairman
Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
Boston University School of Medicine
Director of Orthopedic Trauma
Boston Medical Center

Visiting Professor Lecture
11:00 a.m.
“Question Everything”

MODERATOR
Alfonso Mejia, MD, MPH
Program Residency Director
Vice Head
Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of Illinois at Chicago

VICTOR ORTIZ, MD
“Biceps Tenodesis Effectiveness Using Ultrasound:
Minimum 2 Year Follow Up Study”

JONATHAN LESTER, MD
“Patient Factors Affecting Hamstring Graft Size”

EMILY MEREDITH MAYEKAR, MD
“Radiation Exposure To The Orthopaedic Surgeon And Efficacy Of A Novel Radiation Attenuation Product”

PETER MCQUEEN, MD
“Distal Femoral Morphology: Does Ethnicity,
Gender, Or Body Size Play A Role?”

DAVID SAVIN, MD
“Biomechanical Evaluation Of Distal Biceps Repair Using Tension Slide Technique And Knotless Fixation Technique”

AARON SCHWARTZ, MD
“The Role Of Race In Patellar Tendon Dimensions.”

BRIAN SCHWARTZ, MD
“Combined Femoroacetabular Anteversion: Do Patient
Demographics Play A Role? A CT Scan Study.”

OLIVIA WANG, MD
“Carpal Tunnel Syndrome And Tendon Kinematics.”

2.0 credit hours in Category 1 of the Physicians’ Recognition Award is awarded by the UIC College of Medicine through AMA accreditation for sponsoring continuing medical education.