

Housing Waiver

Provision of appropriate student housing while abroad is most often included as a part of the program and/or the host institution's available student services. In some cases, students must find their own accommodation. In other cases, students may opt out of available program or university housing options and elect to find their own accommodation. The University of Illinois at Chicago cannot guarantee the health and safety of participants in a program or eliminate all risks from international environments, including independent housing.

Please read, sign, and return this form.

- I understand that I am fully responsible and assume all risks for finding my own housing accommodations while a UIC student abroad and that the University of Illinois at Chicago cannot guarantee the availability, safety, or cost of any housing arrangements that I make myself.
- I understand that the University of Illinois at Chicago is not in a position to guarantee my personal health or safety related to my housing choice.
- In consideration of being allowed to find my own housing, I hereby release the University of Illinois at Chicago, its Board of Trustees, officers, agents and employees from any and all claims arising out of or in any way connected with UIC programs and the undersigned's participation in the program, including, but not limited to the risks as outlined above.
